*We look forward to seeing you at IBB's
5th Annual Symposium on July 15, 2009!*

WHAT: IBB's 5th Annual Symposium

WHEN: July 15, 2009 / 1- 7 PM

WHERE: Rice University's McMurtry Auditorium of Duncan Hall

This event is free and open to all. The afternoon sessions will include presentations by IBB faculty in several bio-related topical areas. The Hamill Innovations Awards and the IBB Medical Innovations Award recipients and IBB Morse Fellow will be recognized at the event. There will also be a poster session for students and post-doctoral fellows, with cash prizes awarded in multiple categories. A special dinner in honor of outgoing IBB Associate Director, Ms. Diana Welch, will be served in Duncan Hall following the sessions, and guests and families are welcome to attend. Please RSVP for dinner to kimberly@rice.edu.

Anyone interested in presenting a poster at the symposium must email the title and name of the presenting author to ibb@rice.edu by July 10th to reserve a spot. Please also indicate whether the presenting author is an undergraduate, graduate student or post-doctoral fellow.
